financial disclosure Alcon consultant

video simposium of challenging cases and
complication management

Virgilio Centurion
Sao Paulo - Brasil
conclusion
- it is necessary to check the insertion system before beginning the surgical day in order to avoid this kind of complication.
- this system is a highly controlled method of implantation.
- the idea is to avoid the enlargement of the incision when the implantation is done in a continuous and high speed.

thank you!

Virgilio Centurion
centurion@imo.com.br